FOOTNOTES:

¹ Community Group Housing provides properties and assistance in gaining access to houses to groups who support people in the community.

² Emergency Housing is when HNZ leases properties to third parties to provide short-term accommodation, generally up to three months, for a household with an urgent need for accommodation because they have nowhere to stay or are unable to remain in their usual residence. The temporary accommodation provides a place to stay while their needs are understood and addressed, and longer-term sustainable accommodation found. Transitional housing is when HNZ leases properties to third parties to provide short-term accommodation for longer durations (e.g. six months) for people transitioning from adverse situations or with complex needs. The temporary accommodation is used to help people stabilise their short-term housing and support needs, learn to live independently before moving to a more permanent housing solution.

³ A bedsit does not have a separate bedroom.

Note - Housing New Zealand properties may be owned by Housing New Zealand or leased by Housing New Zealand from the owner.
